CHAIRMAN, FOUNDER

Good News India

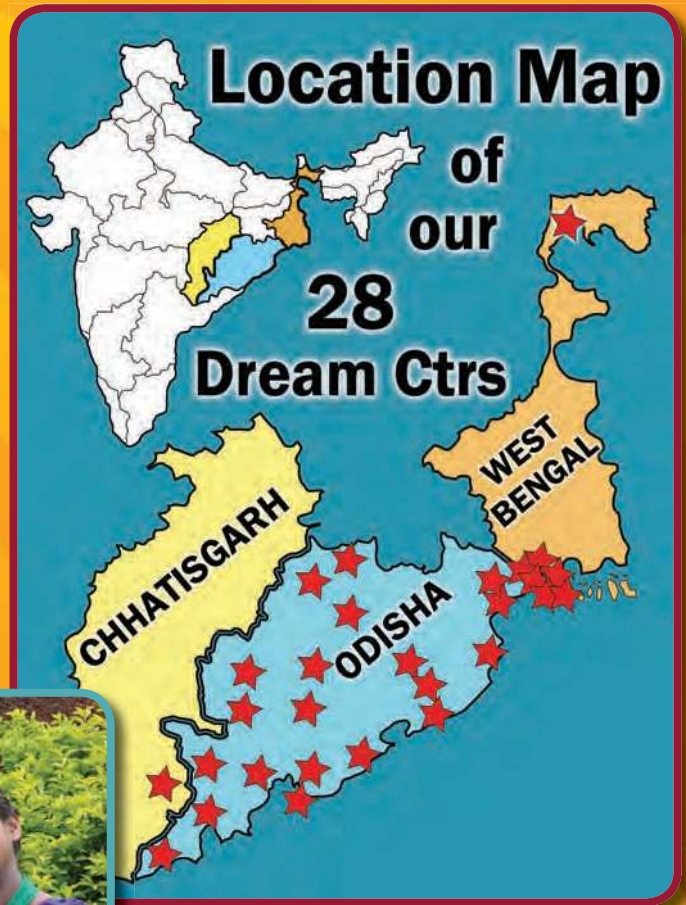

SUMMER 2014

My dear sponsors and donors:

I write this from India... a land going through enormous changes politically and economically. A country that has a greater population than the combined population of North, Central, and South America... a country that has an enormous upper and middle class, but yet a country where it is still very dangerous to be a rural child or a woman. My world is a world of great joy and great pain. Joy when I mingle with my acres of diamonds and pain when I read applications from children in extremely desperate circumstances.

We have recently been told and we have verified by research that Good News India happens to be, by far, the WORLD'S LARGEST NETWORK OF ORPHANAGES that offer a complete 24/7 care and further the only ones who will take its students through University or Vo-tech training. This news rather surprised me... a serendipitous moment... because our task is to break the cycle of poverty and connect our kids with the Crucified Savior... and only a long term relational strategy will produce that goal. It seems obvious... This news only spurs me on to press on in our quest towards our goal of 10,000 rescued and educated lives.

ANNUAL STAFF CONFERENCE

We are about to begin our Annual Staff Conference... a time of R & R for our staff that work 24/7 with the children – a task that often times is arduous and fraught with dangers. They have to face the vagaries of sicknesses, accidents, attitudes, conflicts... the list is endless when you consider what parenting involves. I bring them away for 4 days at a sea side area for physical and spiritual renewal. This year, I am inviting our GNI Children's Choir to join us... a group of about 45 kids with bellows for lungs and who sing on pitch – a choir conductor's dream choir. And I get to conduct them!!

DANCE CAMP 2014

We have just concluded our Dance Camp – about 35 of our top dancers from all our Dream Centers who came in for advanced Indian classical training... and after they are done, I will dispatch them to our newer dream centers to teach our younger kids the art of classical dancing. It is a win-win proposition.

GRADUATIONS COMING UP

The month of June will witness 5 major regional graduation ceremonies among our GNI family. About 200 kids will walk the line with caps, gowns, Elgar's march and all the pomp and circumstance that we can muster up.... We want to create a visual for the younger kids to aim towards... not to mention the awe and wonder it brings to the local community that have never seen anything like this. And guess what?... I am thoroughly delighted to report that 6 of our Lodha kids (the violent, backward tribals) are graduating from High School this year.. IT IS A FIRST FOR THEIR WHOLE COMMUNITY. And it is bringing hope and inspiration to many others to leave their violent, killing, looting way of life for something better.. this is indeed community transformation through the Gospel.

ENGLISH MEDIUM SCHOOLS

I am happy to report that we have transitioned almost 30 middle-school kids into English Medium Schools because they scored very high in their own government school exams as well as in our own internal GNI exams. Considering their totally disadvantaged backgrounds, our kids are all doing remarkably well in academics. And while I am on of this subject... let me share a new dream... for I am pregnant with a new idea: "GNIGTC"

A GOOD NEWS INDIA GIFTED AND TALENTED CENTER. It is big... it is huge and it is scary. In the capital city of Bhubaneswar, (population 1 million), I am dreaming of a building complex that will house the top 5% of our GNI diamonds. These are the movers and shakers of our GNI family. Brilliant and motivated, these kids will become the lawyers, doctors, professors and business leaders that will shape their society. I cannot leave them to the limited parameters of their local Government Schools. It is going to be costly to send them to private English Medium Schools, but with their gifted minds, I can do no less... I know this is the will of the Lord and He has always had His people stand alongside me.

Dr. Rahman helps celebrate the birthday of a leper lady, Sombari by feeding her cake (an India custom), presenting a new sari and praying over her while the kids and other leper adults look on and take part in the fun and special sweets. Pastor/Director Sarat Garadia assists.

Here is a list of upcoming events for GNI:

YOUTH CAMP & BIBLE QUIZ ~ SEPT. 2014 ~ 900 teenagers for 6 days. Budget of $20,000

CHRISTMAS CONCERTS ~ DEC. 2014 ~ 8 Dance teams
40-voice choir
4 venues
Thousands of spectators
Budget of $10,000

Thank you for holding the rope for me.. for our kids. Thank you for praying and giving. Thank you for coming to visit our kids. It is costly to raise one child, let alone 2800+ but the joys are immeasurable.

Enjoy your Summer.

Joyfully in Christ's Service
